

Operation Training

Operations Training is a streamlined way to learn about USPS® from National through District to local squadron. This class is about managing local squadron organizations and operating them successfully.